

Candidates are Filing Expense Accounts At Court House

Bell Says He Spent Less Than $50, But It Cost Rowland $2483.20 to Bring Home the Bacon

DISSEMINATORS SOMEWHAT DIVERSIFIED

The November election expense accounts of the different parties and candidates now being filed in the Prothonotary's office are creating the usual interest among the curious, and each account is scanned closely by the observant students of things political as soon as they can get their fingers on them.

Legislative candidates Bauman and Bell, Democrats, were first to file. They report expenses of less than $50 each.

Joseph S. Reitz, of DuBois, chairman of the DuBois temperance forces reports contributions of $50 and expenditures of $47.25. Candidates Tobian and Reed each contributed $5 to this fund.

Charles H. Rowland, successful candidate for congress in the twenty-first district pleads guilty to having spent $2,483.20 in his quest for the office. This account shows that Mr. Rowland gave $500 each to the county chairmen of the Republican party in Clearfield, Centre and McKean counties, while the chairman of little Cameron only received $300 for his share. Of the remaining $683.20, the major portion or $510 went to "bottle" or "bottle scarred" veterans and patriots who are always willing (for a consideration) to stand out in the thickest of the fray and battle for what they are given to see the right.

Of this galaxy of captains of politics chairman of DuBois and M. Ward ties J. K. Thompson received $50 as Fleming pulled down $25 as directing head of the Philipsburg "home folks" organization.

Harry Sweeney was given $100 as the chunk cut off for the Houtzdale region.

U. B. Walker and W. H. Walker fought, bled and hurried home with the bacon out Woodland way for $10 apiece, while Charley Fowler, who had a little piece of territory Sweeney could not cover, was given $10 to see that everything came in right.

George B. Copelin settled for $5 as a watcher up at McCartney and Jim Gray was given $10 with which to properly disseminate the right kind of information at Carawath.

Gus Gleason had his car in and succeeded in securing $50 for use in the fifth ward of DuBois.

Ed. Westcott, of the third ward who "handled" the railroad vote and made his maiden bow as a "big league politician," was there with the hook and succeeded in pulling down $100 for the dissemination of the proper kind of information. Last, but by no means least, enters the name of Thomas Styles, the untiered Gulch township Socialist leader, who hates the capitalist class, when they keep their money out of circulation in his immediate vicinity—with a deep dyed and loud-mouthed

WILSON WORKING ON MESSAGE TO CONGRESS

Will Apprise American Business of Trade Conditions After War and Neutrality Law

PROGRESS TO PRINT MESSAGE

Washington, Nov. 22.—(By United Press)—President Wilson's message to be delivered to Congress on December 5, will apprise American business of the unprecedented trade conditions after the war. President Wilson is now putting the finishing touches to his speech before sending it to the public printer. He believes that the country's industries will do maximum work and that it will take a closer co-operation between employer and employee, this will be the keynote of his address. In addition he will propose Porto Rican legislature, industrial education, and possibly will propose better weapons for federal agents in bringing conspirators against neutrality and justice.

President Wilson will deliver his message to Congress about noon on a little after on December 5th. At this time it will be of utmost importance to the welfare of the country. Anticipating the interest that will be manifested in the remarks and recommendations of our President, the Progress will print on the evening of December 5th the message of the President.

hate, demonstrated that he had an eye single or single eye, to the main chance and was no piker in the game by heading the list of awards and kicking in with $140 labeled "for the dissemination of information." It is said Tom made his appeal for (un) reason to his fellow comrades with the kale safely tucked in the toe of his shoe, and readily convinced them that what he has long been saying about the capitalist class is subject to revision under certain circumstances.

The remainder of the fund was distributed by Roy Wilkinson for the good of the order and paid out to the newspapers for publicity and for hotel accommodations.

THE LATE FRANZ JOSEF
Of Austria-Hungary

Death of Franz Josef Leaves Stripling of Ruler For Empire Hungarians Likely To Revolt

London, Nov. 22.—(By United Press)—The official announcement of the death of Emperor Francis Josef ruler of Austria, was still withheld at the court in Vienna today, but special dispatches from various sources left no doubt of his demise.

Europe accepted it as a matter of fact and Arch Duke Charles Francis Josef who will wear the crown of the Dual Monarchy in Vienna for the funeral of his uncle and to be present at the council of state which was called immediately following the Emperor's death, it was announced at Schoenbrunn palace last night. Arch Duke Charles' military education has been good and in the great war he has proved himself worthy, but he has had no training in statecraft or diplomacy and his assumption of the throne comes at a critical time. Although the success of the war is at stake a strong man is required to hold together the Empire itself. Hungary is restive carrying the Hapsburg yoke and desires the establishment of a separate kingdom which will prevent it from coming entirely under Teutonic control. Francis Josef was strong and the immediate result of his death will mean that Greece will try to grab the Central Empire. The mere stripling who succeeds Francis Josef will probably be pliant in the hands of Germany who will make him accede to her wishes.

OLDEST RULER

Emperor Francis Josef was the oldest reigning ruler in Europe. He ruled for 68 years other rulers have been longer on the throne but have not been in active service as long as Emperor Francis Josef. Pharaoh ruled 99 years and Lewis, Fourteenth 72 years. Each ascending the throne when he was a child. Rameses, the Second ruled for 72 years and Queen Victoria of England ruled for 64 years.

Arch Duke Charles Francis Josef was little known until the assassination of his brother Arch Duke Francis Ferdinand at Sarajevo, June 28, 1914. He was then reputed democratically inclined and popular socially. Since his brother's assassination which plunged Europe into war Arch Duke Charles has made a good soldier however. The court of Vienna is known as the most formal in all Europe and it will probably be a week or more before Francis Josef will be buried and his successor proclaimed. In that time many important conferences will be held at which Austrian and Hungarian premiers will attend. They are now hurrying to Vienna today to attend the special session of cabinet. Kaiser William, Czar Ferdinand and the Turkish Crown Prince are expected to attend the funeral. If custom is followed the funeral will not take place for at least a week.

Sixty-eight years ago when Francis Josef assumed the crown of Austria he terminated the ancient custom of cutting out the heart of the royal deceased and preserving them in a silver urn. In accordance with his wishes he will be embalmed, placed in a long wood coffin lined with white satin and covered with black velvet and placed in a crypt.

He will probably lay in state for several days in Hapsburg or in the church where the crypt is kept. This little old church of the Caputian fathers has held the Hapsburg dead for four centuries. Francis Josef is number 132 in line.

Detailed reports from Vienna said that the aged Emperor had seemed in good health Monday night, but that on Tuesday he complained of pains in the throat and while talking with the Arch Duchess Maria Valerie he became worse and the Arch Duchess assisted him to his bedroom early in the evening. He seemed to be resting easily at nine o'clock on Tuesday night, but a half hour later uttered a scream and tried vainly to speak and died within a few minutes. Charles Francis Josef was telephoned to immediately and Kaiser William was apprised by special long distance telephone connecting the Vienna war office and the German military headquarters.

Mr. H. Haskel, who has been in Clearfield for the past several weeks will leave this evening for Buffalo, N. Y.

Allows One Cross Only

We are informed since publishing last night's statement concerning the proposed congressional contest or recount that the friends of Wm. E. Tobias will base their claims on different allegations than those mentioned, as a careful reading of the election law and Supreme court decisions show that the election board which refused to count for Mr. Tobias the votes marked after both the Prohibition and Democratic party designations were right in their interpretation of the law which specifically states that ballots marked with a double cross such as that would be invalid and could not be allowed.

ROUNDED OUT A HALF CENTURY

C. E. Roseberry arrived at the half century mark on life's stormy pathway yesterday and his home folks and a few personal friends decided to give the old fellow a surprise birthday blow-out in honor of the event. The affair was properly staged for his arrival home in the evening and was a complete surprise. Roseberry rose to the occasion as he always does when roast turkey is the piece de resistance and joined heartily in the general good time enjoyed.

Madera Auto Returning From Houtzdale Hits Man as He Steps in Front of It

THE JURY EXONERATES DRIVER

Sanco Salamassi, a Slavish miner residing at Madera, aged 45 years, was run down and killed about 11 o'clock last night by an automobile driven by Otto Fager, also of Madera.

The facts as we got them from District Attorney Welch are as follows:

Last evening a large number of Madera people attended the show at Houtzdale, making the trip in automobiles. After the performance they started for home, some ten or twelve machines being in the line-up. Salamassi and three companions were on their way home from town and the accident occurred just outside of Madera. When the automobile approached the men Fager sounded his horn and turned out to pass them. Just as the machine reached them Salamassi jumped directly in its path and was struck, knocked down and run over.

There were four or five people riding with Fager when the accident occurred and they say he was entirely blameless in the matter.

The injured man was picked up and placed in the machine and rushed to a doctor in Madera but was dead when the doctor's office was reached. He was a married man, his family being yet in the old country. Coroner Pollum and District Attorney Welch were notified of the happening by Squire Ruffner and the Coroner and county Detective Jeffries went at once to Madera to investigate the affair. They exonerate Fager of responsibility for the accident.

Confidence is Keynote of First Session of Suffrage Convention

Visitors to Williamsport are Enthusiastic Over Outlook For Success.

Williamsport, Pa., Nov. 22.—Confidence was the keynote of the forty-eighth annual convention of the Pennsylvania Woman Suffrage association that opened in the Y. M. C. A. here today with more than 500 delegates from all sections of the state in attendance.

Early in the session the proposition to ask the state legislature to legalize another suffrage referendum to be voted on in 1920 was brought up. Mrs. J. C. Miller of Pittsburgh, vice president and chairman of the convention, expressed a confident belief that the suffragists would be successful in this. She said:

"With all branches of the Republican party reported to be preparing to enact progressive legislation, and with numerous members of the legislature pledged to our cause, the fact that 250,000 men voted for our amendment at this writing.

Kansas City, Nov. 22.—(By United Press)—Judge Wallace Hood in federal court here today held that the Adamson eight hour law is unconstitutional and invalid.

Judge Hood refused the government's motion made by the Federal Attorney on the appointment of a receiver for the Missouri, Oklahoma & Gulf Railroad company for an injunction against the Adamson law and ordered it dismissed.

Attorneys for the government will take the case to the Supreme court at St. Louis. It will be the last case to be determined before the higher court as to the constitutionality of the Adamson eight hour law.

Judge Hood made his decision at 11:18 this morning. "My decision was merely to rush the case to the Supreme court as rapidly as possible," he said after making the decision. The government will probably give the case to higher court before three o'clock.

Biggest Ship Afloat Sunk in Aegean Sea

Fifty Lives Lost When Britannia of White Star Line Goes Down

London, Nov. 22.—(By United Press)—The British Hospital ship, Britannia, of the White Star Line, and the biggest ship afloat was sunk in the Zee channel in the Aegean Sea yesterday the admiralty announced today. 50 persons were lost 28 injured and 1100 saved.

The admiralty announcement declared that the vessel was sunk by either a mine or torpedo.

The Britannia was of 45,125 tons displacement and was the biggest British vessel and was the largest vessel afloat except the German steamer Vaterland. It belonged to the White Star Line and was only finished last year and was immediately put into passenger service but it was later requisitioned by the British government as a hospital transport. The channel is a bit of water between the mainland of Greece and Asia, and it is presumed that the vessel was carrying wounded from Salonika.

BELLEFONTAINE LADY DIES

John H. Martin of Ogden avenue received the sad news at noon today of the sudden death of his only sister, Mrs. C. J. Hamilton, of Bellefonte. She is the mother of Mrs. Wilson Rumick, nee Elizabeth Hamilton, well known here. Mrs. Hamilton's death will be a great shock to Mrs. Martin, her aged mother who makes her home with her. She is also survived by Fred T. Martin, of Clearfield and A. S. Martin of Philadelphia.

Off With the Mustache; Golly But It's Fine

England's Officers are No Longer Required to Wear an Adornment On the Upper Lip.

By Hal O'Flaherty
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
London, Nov. 7.—(By Mail)—And it came to pass those in command of England's new army related, saying "wherefore we have made burthen some the lives of our younger officers in that we require adornment of the upper lip, let there be modification of our order leaving the discretion of the wearer the matter of facial decoration."

Perhaps not in those words but somewhat in that manner, the famous order requiring British officers to wear mustaches has been placed among the relics of the world war. Originally paragraph 1096 of the King's Regulations read as follows: "The hair of the head will be kept short and the chin and under lip will be shaved but not the upper lip. Whiskers, if worn will be of moderate length."

From this clause have been stricken the words "but not the upper lip." Hence the British officer today may or may not cultivate a mustache according to his own inclination or that of his wife or sweetheart. But there is where the rub comes in—The chin and under lip must be shaved. Those desiring a beard are forced to grow either a Dandy or mutton-chops, neither of which is considered becoming.

On the memorable day when the mustache order was modified, barber shops looked like recruiting offices. Youthful lieutenants whose efforts of months had produced nothing but a fuzz shadow of whose usual apologetic order to the barber was: "Just let the upper lip alone," dashed in and impatiently awaited their turn to say: "shave that damned thing off."

WEDNESDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 22 1916

THE KAISER'S FORESIGHT.

Back in July 1914 when the world war was being planned by the Kaiser in his Napoleonic greed for land and world power one of the principal factors in the plans was the almost certain collapse of the house of Hapsburg or at least the early death of the head of the house. The Kaiser's foresight told him that with the aged monarch of Austria out of the way and the nation in the midst of a world war, the dual monarchy would need a strong leader and he, Emperor William, would be that man. His territory would be more than doubled and his greed more fully satisfied.

While the Teutons have been stubborn and are still fighting with grim determination the dreams of the Kaiser are far from fulfilled and Austria is coming to a realization of her part in the scheme of things. It is doubtful whether the Kaiser will realize his ambition to be Emperor of the Teutonic Empire of Europe comprised of Germany, Alsace-Lorraine, Belgium, Austria-Hungary and Turkey. Things did not break right for the Kaiser. The fates decreed that Emperor Josef should live until the Austro Hungarians got their eyes opened to their real position in the world war.

THANKSGIVING PERPLEXITIES

The spirit of Thanksgiving Day is so closely related to charity that one cannot thoroughly imbibe the spirit of the season without thinking of his wonderful blessings. When meditating on our Maker's goodness to us our thoughts naturally turn to desires to make others feel happy. Thousands of men and women get their greatest happiness through giving to others of their substance and material wealth even though the amount be infinitesimal.

Though we may have the spirit of charity, and have the wherewith to give, our greatest question is yet unsolved. Where to give and in what proportionate amount is the question that is debated over and over in the mind of the charitably disposed person.

Three deserving institutions are bidding for our support at this time. It is not our place to say to whom you shall give and in what amounts or proportions. We wish only to ask that the matter be thoroughly studied in your own mind and that each organization receive a share of your charity.

It is quite unnecessary to say a word commendatory to the Clearfield Hospital for which institution a Donation Day will be held on November 28th. Its worth is so well known in this community that its fame as a model institution has spread abroad. It is deserving of our charity, not only in seasons, but day in and day out the year round.

The Children's Aid Society have named November 29th as their Donation Day. This organization has performed a work in Clearfield that is the very exemplification of charity. It throws its loving and protecting arms around the unfortunate young of the community and shields them until maturity. Lovers of children will respond to the needs of such an organization.

Let us not forget the Salvation Army who spread good cheer and sunlight in the homes of the destitute and poor at the Thanksgiving and Yuletide season. They, whose faith is greater than ours; they who stand on the street corners preaching the word of Christ who is the author of peace, charity and good will and they who minister entirely to the needs of those whom others in bigotry and pride overlook.

A GIRL'S BATTLE WITH ENVIRONMENT.

Any girl who is able to rise above a mediocre environment deserves unstinted praise. I know just such a girl. Her people are anything but refined and educated, but she has made the most of her high school education and modeled herself into a sweet, cultivated and gracious person whom it is a pleasure to know.

Then, too, the most charming part of it is the fact that she is so delightfully sweet to her own people. She never gets out of patience with their ignorance of "what's what", and instead tactfully helps them over rough places.

Most girls would soon become tired of half a dozen rough boys eternally at their heels, upsetting ink over the living-room rug and altogether making themselves torments. This dear girl, however, has gradually and with the greatest adroitness helped them to control their ruder outbursts of myth. She shows the most excellent taste in her personal dress. I know that her mother's evident love of color and extreme is most displeasing to her, but she has never by word or manner indicated that her mother was different from any woman of culture. Her family is her joy! Indeed, she is most devoted to her mother, father and host of small brothers.

It is very easy to sink below the level of an environment, but extremely difficult to progress in the other direction. It is even more of a feat to improve the environment so that it will be more in accord with one's ideals. Many girls with equally as good an education as this little friend of mine, and also compelled to live in surroundings that they are necessarily dissatisfied with, perhaps have never given a thought toward an effort to better the surroundings. I should say that for such girls there is something inspiring in the character of this excellent girl.

GLASS OF SOLTS
CLEANS KIDNEYS

If Your Back hurts or Bladder bothers you, drink lots of water.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys, and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys active and clean. Try this, also keep up the water drinking and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.

Chester Smeal and Foster Mann left this morning for Warren on business.

SAGE TEA KEEPS
YOUR HAIR DARK

When Mixed With Sulphur It Brings Back Its Beautiful Lustre at Once

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks streaked just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold.

Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the recipe at home or get from any drug store a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" which is merely the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully, besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous and you appear years younger.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No gripping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth" now and then—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them, 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

Rhode Islanders have been a little touchy on the subject of presidential turkeys ever since in 1863, when Grant was in the White House, Rhode Island's "Turkey King" began the custom of providing a prize bird as the center of the Chief Executive's holiday meal. THE BUDDING OF A NEW SCHOOL ENTERPRISE

President, Harold Knight
Vice-president, William Carey.
Secretary, Ona Froyd.
Treasurer, Bishop Shaw.
Reporter, Rose Flynn.

For a long time the students of Clearfield High have felt the need of some organization which would help them to become better citizens. Their desire has culminated in the formation of the Modern Problem Club of the Clearfield High school by the present senior class of 1917.

The purpose of the club is to instill more civic pride into the students in order that they may be the better enabled to enjoy and perform the important duties of citizenship. Girls as well as boys are admitted to the club because the time is not far distant when the franchise will be in the hands of the fairer sex.

The members of the club appreciate the advanced opportunities which are theirs in this day and age of education, when the most up-to-date buildings are being erected, the excellent facilities at their disposal, the trained corps of teachers to guide them, and yet there has been a yearning for some medium by means of which they could become broader in their views, better acquainted with the civic problems of their town and make it a better place in which to live.

They are beginning to realize as never before that the boys and girls in school today are the ones who must prepare to execute the offices held by their fathers. Therefore they think such an organization as this will satisfy the desire of a long felt need in our community. With this in view the club is prepared to launch its constitution and do the kind of team work that shall accomplish the spirit of the slogan which is "A Higher Type of Citizenship for Clearfield."

A very important meeting was held last evening at the High school building, the purpose of which was to adopt the constitution. After a few discussions it was legally adopted and a motion for adjournment was made. Every member departed from the club with a wish in their heart to follow the slogan of the class.

Too much praise cannot be given to our efficient and capable adviser, Mr. Taylor and we all feel that our enterprise will be a grand success with him as our helmsman at the wheel.

The next meeting will be held on Friday, at 1:30 p. m., Nov. 24, 1916. Club Reporter.

"LITTLE MARY SUNSHINE"

Featuring Baby Marie Osborn—at The Globe Theatre Today

The play starts in a cheerless, hope-forsaken room in a tenement in the slums. Little Mary seems to have been neglected when the joy of life was distributed, for her mother has sorrow and a weak heart, and her father a taste for drink and a strong temper. Father comes home in pretty bad shape and frightens mothers, whose heart stops for all time. He then runs off, leaving little Mary all alone. Some neighbor tell Mary that "Mother's gone to Heaven" and Mary, who was fond of mother, starts out to hunt her up. She gets tired, though, after a while, and creeps into a standing automobile, where she covers herself over with the rug. There she is found by Bob Daley, who, having celebrated with the boys and been turned down by his fiancée therefore, is returning home more sober each minute.

Bob's parents take care of the tyke, who, after a couple of baths, something to eat, and a romp in the garden, displays such an inclination to agree with life that she is promptly rechristened "Little Mary Sunshine." She has the most wonderful dream about a bear, and works with Bob's dad to bring about a reconciliation between Bob and his best beloved.

Candidates are Filing Expense Accounts At Court House

Bell Says He Spent Less Than $50, But
It Cost Rowland $2483.20 to Bring Home the Bacon

DISSEMINATORS SOMEWHAT DIVERSIFIED

The November election expense accounts of the different parties and candidates now being filed in the Prothonotary's office are creating the usual interest among the curious, and each account is scanned closely by the observant students of things political as soon as they can get their fingers on them.

Legislative candidates Bauman and Bell, Democrats, were first to file. They report expenses of less than $50 each.

Joseph S. Reitz, of DuBois, chairman of the DuBois temperance forces reports contributions of $50 and expenditures of $47.25. Candidates Tobian and Reed each contributed $5 to this fund.

Charles H. Rowland, successful candidate for congress in the twenty-first district pleads guilty to having spent $2,483.20 in his quest for the office. This account shows that Mr. Rowland gave $500 each to the county chairmen of the Republican party in Clearfield, Centre and McKean counties, while the chairman of little Cameron only received $300 for his share. Of the remaining $683.20, the major portion or $510 went to "bottle" or "bottle scarred" veterans and patriots who are always willing (for a consideration) to stand out in the thickest of the fray and battle for what they are given to see the right.

Of this galaxy of captains of policy chairman of DuBois and M. Ward ties J. K. Thompson received $50 as Fleming pulled down $25 as directing head of the Philipsburg "home folks" organization.

Harry Sweeney was given $100 as the chunk cut off for the Houtzdale region.

U. B. Walker and W. H. Walker fought, bled and hurried home with the bacon out Woodland way for $10 apiece, while Charley Fowler, who had a little piece of territory Sweeney could not cover, was given $10 to see that everything came in right.

George B. Copelin settled for $5 as a watcher up at McCartney and Jim Gray was given $10 with which to properly disseminate the right kind of information at Carawath.

Gus Gleason had his car in and succeeded in securing $50 for use in the fifth ward of DuBois.

Ed. Westcott, of the third ward who "handled" the railroad vote and made his maiden bow as a "big league politician," was there with the hook and succeeded in pulling down $100 for the dissemination of the proper kind of information. Last, but by no means least, enters the name of Thomas Styles, the untiered Gulch township Socialist leader, who hates the capitalist class, when they keep their money out of circulation in his immediate vicinity—with a deep dyed and loud-mouthed

WILSON WORKING ON MESSAGE TO CONGRESS

Will Apprise American Business of Trade Conditions After War and Neutrality Law

PROGRESS TO PRINT MESSAGE

Washington, Nov. 22.—(By United Press)—President Wilson's message to be delivered to Congress on December 5, will apprise American business of the unprecedented trade conditions after the war. President Wilson is now putting the finishing touches to his speech before sending it to the public printer. He believes that the country's industries will do maximum work and that it will take a closer co-operation between employer and employee, this will be the keynote of his address. In addition he will propose Porto Rican legislature, industrial education, and possibly will propose better weapons for federal agents in bringing conspirators against neutrality and justice.

President Wilson will deliver his message to Congress about noon on a little after on December 5th. At this time it will be of utmost importance to the welfare of the country. Anticipating the interest that will be manifested in the remarks and recommendations of our President, the Progress will print on the evening of December 5th the message of the President.

hate, demonstrated that he had an eye single or single eye, to the main chance and was no piker in the game by heading the list of awards and kicking in with $140 labeled "for the dissemination of information." It is said Tom made his appeal for (un) reason to his fellow comrades with the kale safely tucked in the toe of his shoe, and readily convinced them that what he has long been saying about the capitalist class is subject to revision under certain circumstances.

The remainder of the fund was distributed by Roy Wilkinson for the good of the order and paid out to the newspapers for publicity and for hotel accommodations.

Off With the Mustache; Golly But It's Fine

England's Officers are No Longer Required to Wear an Adornment On the Upper Lip.

By Hal O'Flaherty
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
London, Nov. 7.—(By Mail)—And it came to pass those in command of England's new army related, saying "wherefore we have made burthen some the lives of our younger officers in that we require adornment of the upper lip, let there be modification of our order leaving the discretion of the wearer the matter of facial decoration."

Perhaps not in those words but somewhat in that manner, the famous order requiring British officers to wear mustaches has been placed among the relics of the world war. Originally paragraph 1096 of the King's Regulations read as follows: "The hair of the head will be kept short and the chin and under lip will be shaved but not the upper lip. Whiskers, if worn will be of moderate length." From this clause have been stricken the words "but not the upper lip." Hence the British officer today may or may not cultivate a mustache according to his own inclination or that of his wife or sweetheart. But there is where the rub comes in—The chin and under lip must be shaved. Those desiring a beard are forced to grow either a Dandy or mutton-chops, neither of which is considered becoming.

On the memorable day when the mustache order was modified, barber shops looked like recruiting offices. Youthful lieutenants whose efforts of months had produced nothing but a fuzz shadow of whose usual apologetic order to the barber was: "just let the upper lip alone," dashed in and impatiently awaited their turn to say: "shave that damned thing off."

THE LATE FRANZ JOSEF
Of Austria-Hungary

Death of Franz Josef Leaves Stripling of Ruler For Empire Hungarians Likely To Revolt

London, Nov. 22.—(By United Press)—The official announcement of the death of Emperor Francis Josef ruler of Austria, was still withheld at the court in Vienna today, but special dispatches from various sources left no doubt of his demise.

Europe accepted it as a matter of fact and Arch Duke Charles Francis Josef who will wear the crown of the Dual Monarchy in Vienna for the funeral of his uncle and to be present at the council of state which was called immediately following the Emperor's death, it was announced at Schoenbrunn palace last night. Arch Duke Charles' military education has been good and in the great war he has proved himself worthy, but he has had no training in statecraft or diplomacy and his assumption of the throne comes at a critical time. Although the success of the war is at stake a strong man is required to hold together the Empire itself. Hungary is restive carrying the Hapsburg yoke and desires the establishment of a separate kingdom which will prevent it from coming entirely under Teutonic control. Francis Josef was strong and the immediate result of his death will mean that Greece will try to grab the Central Empire. The mere stripling who succeeds Francis Josef will probably be pliant in the hands of Germany who will make him accede to her wishes.

OLDEST RULER

Emperor Francis Josef was the oldest reigning ruler in Europe. He ruled for 68 years other rulers have been longer on the throne but have not been in active service as long as Emperor Francis Josef. Pharaoh ruled 99 years and Lewis, Fourteenth 72 years. Each ascending the throne when he was a child. Rameses, the Second ruled for 72 years and Queen Victoria of England ruled for 64 years.

Arch Duke Charles Francis Josef was little known until the assassination of his brother Arch Duke Francis Ferdinand at Sarajevo, June 28, 1914. He was then reputed democratically inclined and popular socially. Since his brother's assassination which plunged Europe into war Arch Duke Charles has made a good soldier however. The court of Vienna is known as the most formal in all Europe and it will probably be a week or more before Francis Josef will be buried and his successor proclaimed. In that time many important conferences will be held at which Austrian and Hungarian premiers will attend. They are now hurrying to Vienna today to attend the special session of cabinet. Kaiser William, Czar Ferdinand and the Turkish Crown Prince are expected to attend the funeral. If custom is followed the funeral will not take place for at least a week.

Sixty-eight years ago when Francis Josef assumed the crown of Austria he terminated the ancient custom of cutting out the heart of the royal deceased and preserving them in a silver urn. In accordance with his wishes he will be embalmed, placed in a long wood coffin lined with white satin and covered with black velvet and placed in a crypt.

He will probably lay in state for several days in Hapsburg or in the church where the crypt is kept. This little old church of the Caputian fathers has held the Hapsburg dead for four centuries. Francis Josef is number 132 in line.

Detailed reports from Vienna said that the aged Emperor had seemed in good health Monday night, but that on Tuesday he complained of pains in the throat and while talking with the Arch Duchess Maria Valerie he became worse and the Arch Duchess assisted him to his bedroom early in the evening. He seemed to be resting easily at nine o'clock on Tuesday night, but a half hour later uttered a scream and tried vainly to speak and died within a few minutes. Charles Francis Josef was telephoned to immediately and Kaiser William was apprised by special long distance telephone connecting the Vienna war office and the German military headquarters.

Mr. H. Haskel, who has been in Clearfield for the past several weeks will leave this evening for Buffalo, N. Y.

Allows One Cross Only

We are informed since publishing last night's statement concerning the proposed congressional contest or recount that the friends of Wm. E. Tobias will base their claims on different allegations than those mentioned, as a careful reading of the election law and Supreme court decisions show that the election board which refused to count for Mr. Tobias the votes marked after both the Prohibition and Democratic party designations were right in their interpretation of the law which specifically states that ballots marked with a double cross such as that would be invalid and could not be allowed.

ROUNDED OUT A HALF CENTURY

C. E. Roseberry arrived at the half century mark on life's stormy pathway yesterday and his home folks and a few personal friends decided to give the old fellow a surprise birthday blow-out in honor of the event. The affair was properly staged for his arrival home in the evening and was a complete surprise. Roseberry rose to the occasion as he always does when roast turkey is the piece de resistance and joined heartily in the general good time enjoyed.

THE JURY EXONERATES DRIVER

Sanco Salamassi, a Slavish miner residing at Madera, aged 45 years, was run down and killed about 11 o'clock last night by an automobile driven by Otto Fager, also of Madera.

The facts as we got them from District Attorney Welch are as follows:

Last evening a large number of Madera people attended the show at Houtzdale, making the trip in automobiles. After the performance they started for home, some ten or twelve machines being in the line-up. Salamassi and three companions were on their way home from town and the accident occurred just outside of Madera. When the automobile approached the men Fager sounded his horn and turned out to pass them. Just as the machine reached them Salamassi jumped directly in its path and was struck, knocked down and run over.

There were four or five people riding with Fager when the accident occurred and they say he was entirely blameless in the matter.

The injured man was picked up and placed in the machine and rushed to a doctor in Madera but was dead when the doctor's office was reached. He was a married man, his family being yet in the old country. Coroner Pollum and District Attorney Welch were notified of the happening by Squire Ruffner and the Coroner and county Detective Jeffries went at once to Madera to investigate the affair. They exonerate Fager of responsibility for the accident.

Confidence is Keynote of First Session of Suffrage Convention

Visitors to Williamsport are Enthusiastic Over Outlook For Success.

Williamsport, Pa., Nov. 22.—Confidence was the keynote of the forty-eighth annual convention of the Pennsylvania Woman Suffrage association that opened in the Y. M. C. A. here today with more than 500 delegates from all sections of the state in attendance.

Early in the session the proposition to ask the state legislature to legalize another suffrage referendum to be voted on in 1920 was brought up. Mrs. J. C. Miller of Pittsburgh, vice president and chairman of the convention, expressed a confident belief that the suffragists would be successful in this. She said:

"With all branches of the Republican party reported to be preparing to enact progressive legislation, and with numerous members of the legislature pledged to our cause, the fact that 250,000 men voted for our amendment at this writing.

Kansas City, Nov. 22.—(By United Press)—Judge Wallace Hood in federal court here today held that the Adamson eight hour law is unconstitutional and invalid.

Judge Hood refused the government's motion made by the Federal Attorney on the appointment of a receiver for the Missouri, Oklahoma & Gulf Railroad company for an injunction against the Adamson law and ordered it dismissed.

Attorneys for the government will take the case to the Supreme court at St. Louis. It will be the last case to be determined before the higher court as to the constitutionality of the Adamson eight hour law.

Judge Hood made his decision at 11:18 this morning. "My decision was merely to rush the case to the Supreme court as rapidly as possible," he said after making the decision. The government will probably give the case to higher court before three o'clock.

Biggest Ship Afloat Sunk in Aegean Sea

Fifty Lives Lost When Britannia of White Star Line Goes Down

London, Nov. 22.—(By United Press)—The British Hospital ship, Britannia, of the White Star Line, and the biggest ship afloat was sunk in the Zee channel in the Aegean Sea yesterday the admiralty announced today. 50 persons were lost 28 injured and 1100 saved.

The admiralty announcement declared that the vessel was sunk by either a mine or torpedo.

The Britannia was of 45,125 tons displacement and was the biggest British vessel and was the largest vessel afloat except the German steamer Vaterland. It belonged to the White Star Line and was only finished last year and was immediately put into passenger service but it was later requisitioned by the British government as a hospital transport. The channel is a bit of water between the mainland of Greece and Asia, and it is presumed that the vessel was carrying wounded from Salonika.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 22 1916

THE KAISER'S FORESIGHT.

Back in July 1914 when the world war was being planned by the Kaiser in his Napoleonic greed for land and world power one of the principal factors in the plans was the almost certain collapse of the house of Hapsburg or at least the early death of the head of the house. The Kaiser's foresight told him that with the aged monarch of Austria out of the way and the nation in the midst of a world war, the dual monarchy would need a strong leader and he, Emperor William, would be that man. His territory would be more than doubled and his greed more fully satisfied.

While the Teutons have been stubborn and are still fighting with grim determination the dreams of the Kaiser are far from fulfilled and Austria is coming to a realization of her part in the scheme of things. It is doubtful whether the Kaiser will realize his ambition to be Emperor of the Teutonic Empire of Europe comprised of Germany, Alsace-Lorraine, Belgium, Austria-Hungary and Turkey. Things did not break right for the Kaiser. The fates decreed that Emperor Josef should live until the Austro Hungarians got their eyes opened to their real position in the world war.

THANKSGIVING PERPLEXITIES

The spirit of Thanksgiving Day is so closely related to charity that one cannot thoroughly imbibe the spirit of the season without thinking of his wonderful blessings. When meditating on our Maker's goodness to us our thoughts naturally turn to desires to make others feel happy. Thousands of men and women get their greatest happiness through giving to others of their substance and material wealth even though the amount be infinitesimal.

Though we may have the spirit of charity, and have the wherewith to give, our greatest question is yet unsolved. Where to give and in what proportionate amount is the question that is debated over and over in the mind of the charitably disposed person.

Three deserving institutions are bidding for our support at this time. It is not our place to say to whom you shall give and in what amounts or proportions. We wish only to ask that the matter be thoroughly studied in your own mind and that each organization receive a share of your charity.

It is quite unnecessary to say a word commendatory to the Clearfield Hospital for which institution a Donation Day will be held on November 28th. Its worth is so well known in this community that its fame as a model institution has spread abroad. It is deserving of our charity, not only in seasons, but day in and day out the year round.

The Children's Aid Society have named November 29th as their Donation Day. This organization has performed a work in Clearfield that is the very exemplification of charity. It throws its loving and protecting arms around the unfortunate young of the community and shields them until maturity. Lovers of children will respond to the needs of such an organization.

Let us not forget the Salvation Army who spread good cheer and sunlight in the homes of the destitute and poor at the Thanksgiving and Yuletide season. They, whose faith is greater than ours; they who stand on the street corners preaching the word of Christ who is the author of peace, charity and good will and they who minister entirely to the needs of those whom others in bigotry and pride overlook.

A GIRL'S BATTLE WITH ENVIRONMENT.

Any girl who is able to rise above a mediocre environment deserves unstinted praise. I know just such a girl. Her people are anything but refined and educated, but she has made the most of her high school education and modeled herself into a sweet, cultivated and gracious person whom it is a pleasure to know.

Then, too, the most charming part of it is the fact that she is so delightfully sweet to her own people. She never gets out of patience with their ignorance of "what's what", and instead tactfully helps them over rough places.

Most girls would soon become tired of half a dozen rough boys eternally at their heels, upsetting ink over the living-room rug and altogether making themselves torments. This dear girl, however, has gradually and with the greatest adroitness helped them to control their ruder outbursts of myth. She shows the most excellent taste in her personal dress. I know that her mother's evident love of color and extreme is most displeasing to her, but she has never by word or manner indicated that her mother was different from any woman of culture. Her family is her joy! Indeed, she is most devoted to her mother, father and host of small brothers.

It is very easy to sink below the level of an environment, but extremely difficult to progress in the other direction. It is even more of a feat to improve the environment so that it will be more in accord with one's ideals. Many girls with equally as good an education as this little friend of mine, and also compelled to live in surroundings that they are necessarily dissatisfied with, perhaps have never given a thought toward an effort to better the surroundings. I should say that for such girls there is something inspiring in the character of this excellent girl.

GLASS OF SOLTS
CLEANS KIDNEYS

If Your Back hurts or Bladder bothers you, drink lots of water.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys, and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys active and clean. Try this, also keep up the water drinking and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.

Chester Smeal and Foster Mann left this morning for Warren on business.

SAGE TEA KEEPS
YOUR HAIR DARK

When Mixed With Sulphur It Brings Back Its Beautiful Lustre at Once

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks streaked just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold.

Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the recipe at home or get from any drug store a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" which is merely the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully, besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous and you appear years younger.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

No gripping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth" now and then—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them, 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

Providence, R. I., Nov. 22—If a Kentucky-bred turkey graces the White House table this Thanksgiving Day it will have to "go some" to beat out the Rhode Island gobbler that is now being fattened in preparation for shipment to Washington.

Last year the Blue Grass State won out, owing to lack of competition, but this year "Little Rhodey" is entering the lists again with complete confidence that it will furnish the grasshopper-fed, bronze, Narragansett-bred bird for the Thanksgiving dinner of the President and his family.

Rhode Islanders have been a little touchy on the subject of presidential turkeys ever since in 1863, when Grant was in the White House, Rhode Island Vose, the Rhode Island "Turkey King" began the custom of providing a prize bird as the center of the Chief Executive's holiday meal.

New York, Nov. 21.—Book dealers and collectors from many parts of the United States and representatives of some of the leading European galleries thronged the Anderson Galleries today at the opening of the public sales of the Library belonging to Henry E. Huntington of this city. By his purchase of the collections of the Duke of Devonshire, E. Dwight Church, Beverly Chew, Frederic R. Halsey and others, and by his purchases at important public sales, like that of the Hoe Library, Mr. Huntington became the owner of one of the largest and most valuable private libraries in the world.

THE BUDDING OF A NEW SCHOOL ENTERPRISE

President, Harold Knight
Vice-president, William Carey.
Secretary, Ona Froyd.
Treasurer, Bishop Shaw.
Reporter, Rose Flynn.

For a long time the students of Clearfield High have felt the need of some organization which would help them to become better citizens. Their desire has culminated in the formation of the Modern Problem Club of the Clearfield High school by the present senior class of 1917.

The purpose of the club is to instill more civic pride into the students in order that they may be the better enabled to enjoy and perform the important duties of citizenship. Girls as well as boys are admitted to the club because the time is not far distant when the franchise will be in the hands of the fairer sex.

The members of the club appreciate the advanced opportunities which are theirs in this day and age of education, when the most up-to-date buildings are being erected, the excellent facilities at their disposal, the trained corps of teachers to guide them, and yet there has been a yearning for some medium by means of which they could become broader in their views, better acquainted with the civic problems of their town and make it a better place in which to live. They are beginning to realize as never before that the boys and girls in school today are the ones who must prepare to execute the offices held by their fathers. Therefore they think such an organization as this will satisfy the desire of a long felt need in our community. With this in view the club is prepared to launch its constitution and do the kind of team work that shall accomplish the spirit of the slogan which is "A Higher Type of Citizenship for Clearfield."

A very important meeting was held last evening at the High school building, the purpose of which was to adopt the constitution. After a few discussions it was legally adopted and a motion for adjournment was made. Every member departed from the club with a wish in their heart to follow the slogan of the class.

Too much praise cannot be given to our efficient and capable adviser, Mr. Taylor and we all feel that our enterprise will be a grand success with him as our helmsman at the wheel.

The next meeting will be held on Friday, at 1:30 p. m., Nov. 24, 1916. Club Reporter.

"LITTLE MARY SUNSHINE"

Featuring Baby Marie Osborn—at The Globe Theatre Today

The play starts in a cheerless, hope-forsaken room in a tenement in the slums. Little Mary seems to have been neglected when the joy of life was distributed, for her mother has sorrow and a weak heart, and her father a taste for drink and a strong temper. Father comes home in pretty bad shape and frightens mothers, whose heart stops for all time. He then runs off, leaving little Mary all alone. Some neighbor tell Mary that "Mother's gone to Heaven" and Mary, who was fond of mother, starts out to hunt her up. She gets tired, though, after a while, and creeps into a standing automobile, where she covers herself over with the rug. There she is found by Bob Daley, who, having celebrated with the boys and been turned down by his fiancée therefore, is returning home more sober each minute.

Bob's parents take care of the tyke, who, after a couple of baths, something to eat, and a romp in the garden, displays such an inclination to agree with life that she is promptly rechristened "Little Mary Sunshine." She has the most wonderful dream about a bear, and works with Bob's dad to bring about a reconciliation between Bob and his best beloved.
